LONDON, March 17 .- London newsapers, commenting on the disagree- diction. President Wilson and Foreign Minister Pichon, generally agreed today that the league of nations ought to be included in the final peace treaty. They believe, however, that it is possible to include the barest possible outline of the league in the preliminary treaty with the bulk of the details postponed until the final treaty s drawn up. All stress the necessity for quick consummation of peace. IRISH VOLUNTEERS PARADE IN DUBLIN
